

Dolores Hopkins-Taylor

Dolores is a native of Tarboro, NC. Her parents were William J. Hopkins Jr., and Mary Jo Hopkins. Dolores has 3 living siblings: Rev. Tyrone Hopkins, Levetta Renee' Howard and Alaric K. Hopkins. One sister, Jeneise Hopkins Griffin is deceased.

Dolores is a 1968 graduate of Tarboro High School. After graduation she went to Edgecombe Community College, where she earned an Associate Degree in Executive Secretary.

After working as a telephone operator for Carolina Telephone and a secretary for Roberson Elementary School, she went to work for Edgecombe County Tax Assessor's Office in 1984. She began as a Tax Clerk, but was later promoted to Office Manager. After working for 35 years, Dolores retired on December 1, 2008.

In 1969 Dolores married Turner H. Taylor III, a Trojan football player who graduated in 1966. They have two daughters: Twon Q. Taylor-Dukes and Turneshia A. Taylor; son-in-law, Derek Dukes; and two grandchildren: Jaylen (19) and Messiah (6).

Dolores is the Secretary of The Ebonette Club of Tarboro NC Inc., and the President of the Senior Choir at Eastern Star Missionary Baptist Church.

As a proud Trojan Alumni, she looks forward to serving as the Program Chairperson. Feel free to contact her anytime at: pattillo.program2@gmail.com.
