

DR. NEAL BROWN, III

Distinguished Graduate

W. A. Pattillo High School Class of 1975

Dr. Neal Brown is from Tarboro, NC. Brown graduated from THS, Tarboro, NC in the year 1975. He started his educational career at Paul Harding High School as a physical education teacher in 1981 and has soared to receiving a Masters degree in education 1981, an administration certificate in educational leadership 1986, and his Ph.D. Educational Administration, at Indiana University 2006. Dr. Brown retired in 2021 as Principal from the Leo Jr./Sr. High School. Dr. Brown enjoyed his 40 years in public education. He served EACS in the capacity of coach, teacher, assistant principal and principal. Presently Dr. Brown is an adjunct professor at Purdue University in the Educational Leadership/School of Education. Dr. Brown affectionately known as Neal is married to Denese Jones of Princeville, NC and they have one wonderful daughter Aftin Brown, an attorney in Indianapolis, Indiana.