

LORNA PITT LLOYD

Trailblazer Award

W. A. Pattillo High School Class of 1951

Lorna Pitt Lloyd was born in Tarboro, North Carolina. She graduated from Pattillo High School and received a B.S. in Education from Fayetteville State Teacher's College in 1955. In 1957, she married her soulmate, the late SFC Earl Douglas Lloyd and had two children, Derek Earl and Delya Charisse Lloyd.

She did further studies at East Carolina University where she received certification as a Speech Clinician and a Reading Specialist.

Lorna taught in the Rocky Mount and Tarboro City School Systems. After teaching in the classroom for many years, she served as a Speech Clinician until being promoted to the Administrative Staff where she served as Director of Educational Children Program for two years and retired as Test Coordinator.

In 1986, she was elected to the Planters' Tarboro Board. She served on the Advisory Boards of Nash/Edgecombe Economic Development, Inc., and the Tarboro Recreation Department. She was also a member of the East Tarboro Citizens League.

She is a member of St. Paul AME Zion Church in Tarboro, North Carolina, where she served as the organist for 70 years, as well as a Trustee and a Deaconess. She also served as the organist for Eastern Star Missionary Baptist Church in Tarboro and the choir director of the senior choir at Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She was a member of the Jubilee Singers under the direction of Walter Plemmer.

Lorna Pitt Lloyd has been a labor of love. She loves God, loves her church, loves her friends and loves her family.
