

Beverly Perry Clark

I was born and raised in Tarboro, NC by my mother Shirley Marie Perry (Ree Ree) and great grandmother Nancy Elizabeth Perry (Miss Jensie). I attended W. A. Pattillo High School during my elementary years and graduated from Tarboro Senior High School in 1975.

My professional trajectory commenced at the Edgecombe County Sheriff's Office, where I assumed the role of Dispatcher. My commitment to progress led me to transition to the Edgecombe County Department of Social Services, where I served the public, addressing their diverse needs. Within this realm, I actively contributed as a member of the Scholarship Committee for the North Carolina Social Services Association. Additionally, I briefly served on the Tarboro Community Development Commission.

Driven by a profound desire to aid others, particularly children and the elderly, I am deeply committed to serving the community. My work ethic, instilled by my great grandmother, remains steadfast as I continue my employment with the County.
